

PROJECT WORK I

Course Title	PROJECT WORK I
Course Code	PT605
Course Credit	Lecture: 0
	Field work / Practical/ Clinical:2
	Total: 2
Course Objectives-
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To synthesize knowledge from various areas of learning and critically and creatively apply knowledge to clinical practice. 2. To enhance students' knowledge for clinical reasoning with applications of biostatistics and Research methodology. 3. To enable students to acquire skills of collaboration, communication & independent learning.
#	Detailed Syllabus		Hours Allotted
1.	Introduction of project work		2
2.	Project guidelines -		4
3.	Preparation for project proposal and submitting proposal of Synopsis		10
4.	1 st Progress Report		16
After CIE I - session
5.	2 nd Progress Report		16
6.	Final submission of synopsis, project and presentation		16
Instruction Method:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student must identify the project guide from areas of interest and propose their ideas & work project. 2. On approval of project or project proposal by the Guide and project monitoring committee, students will proceed for project work. 3. Student cannot move next stage without completing earlier stage. E.g. to pursue 2nd stage, student must need to complete 1st stage.
Examinations	Stages of project works	Components	Marks
PCIE - I	I	Submission of 1 st Progress Report	10
PCIE - II	II	Field Work and Submission of 2 nd Progress Report	10
PCIE - III	III	Submission of 3 rd Progress Report	10
PCIE - IV	IV	Submission and Presentation of project	10

		work - defense
PSEE	V	Presentation of project work on PPTs - defense	100