Training on "TEAL2.0 Platform Training for Students" organized by RK University on 31st August 2023.

RK University had successfully organized two students' training "TEAL2.0 Platform Training for Students" on 31st August 2023, RK University, India, which is a part of European Union project TEAL 2.0. RK University which is a one of the partner universities in this project, for more details you can visit project website https://rku.ac.in/teal2p0.

The objectives of this training were:
- To enable students to access platform to access their course content in live classroom environment.
- To enable students for online assessments through different H5P interactive materials, quiz and assignment.
- To enable students for online Java programming & Python programming assessment through "coderunner"
- To make students aware about to access their grades of different assessment.

60 students of 1st year & 55 students of 3rd year students from institutions i.e., Faculty of Technology & School of Engineering from RK University actively participated in the training. The training gets started with sharing the objectives of training followed by sessions delivered by course teacher,

1. Prof. Bhoomi Dangar, Assistant Professor in computer engineering department of School of Engineering and already an active member of team of TEAL2.0 platform.
   Classroom: Object Oriented Programing with Java

2. Prof. Snehal Sathwara, Assistant Professor in computer engineering department of School of Engineering and already an active member of team of TEAL2.0 platform.
   Classroom: Python Programming

Students' Training Content:

Topic
Platform overview
Login | Logout | Forgot password
Platform Dashboard
Access course materials
Attempt assessments Quiz with Code Runner | Assignment | H5P Interactions
Accessing grade report
Closing Remarks

Student Feedback Response: click here

Signature List:

1. Java programming students Training – click here
2. Python programming students Training – click here

Photographs:

3. Java programming students Training – click here
4. Python programming students Training – click here

-
Kamlesh Patel
Project Manager
TEAL2.0, RK University, India