

Training on “TEAL2.0 Platform Training for Students” organized by RK University on 5th July | 7th July | 12th July 2023.

RK University had successfully organized students’ training “TEAL2.0 Platform Training for Students” on 5th July | 7th July | 12th July 2023 at different three locations, RK University, India, which is a part of European Union project TEAL 2.0. RK University which is a one of the partner universities in this project, for more details you can visit project website <https://rku.ac.in/teal2p0>.

The objectives of this training were:

- To enable students to access platform to access their course content in live classroom environment.
- To enable students for online assessments through different H5P interactive materials, quiz and assignment.
- To make students aware about to access their grades of different assessment.

50+ students from institutions i.e., Faculty of Technology & School of Engineering from RK University actively participated in the training. The training gets started with sharing the objectives of training followed by sessions delivered by 3 teachers:

1. Prof. Parvez Belim, Assistant Professor in computer engineering department of School of Engineering and already an active member of pilot team of TEAL2.0 platform.
Classroom: Relational Database Management System
2. Prof. Aparajita Biswal, Assistant Professor in computer engineering department of School of Engineering and already an active member of pilot team of TEAL2.0 platform.
Classroom: Campus to Corporate Training
3. Prof. Alpanaba Chudasama, Assistant Professor in computer engineering department of School of Engineering and already an active member of pilot team of TEAL2.0 platform.
Classroom: Internet of Things

Students' Training Content:

Topic
Platform overview
Login Logout Forgot password
Platform Dashboard
Access course materials
Attempt assessments Quiz Assignment H5P Interactions
Accessing grade report
Closing Remarks

Signature List: click here

Photographs: | click here

-

Kamlesh Patel
Project Manager
TEAL2.0, RK University, India